Anthony Cummings
[REDACTED]

October 1, 2021

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

I'd like to give you a brief overview of my skills and experience. I am confident that I could bring value to the State of Nevada as the Division Administrator for the Taxicab Authority.

My relevant qualifications and experience include almost 20 years of law enforcement in various positions, with 7 years being employed in a progressive capacity in public transportation administration with the Colorado Public Utilities Commission. In my capacity at the Commission, I was responsible for the implementing the direction of the unit; including Safety and Compliance reviews of carrier and investigations of complaints filed with the Commission; including against Towing carriers, Household Goods Movers and storage, limousine companies, TNC's, Common Carriers, Contract Carriers, Nonemergency Medical Transportation. I supervised and directed up to 8 investigators in the performance of their duties. I was the resource expert for Commission controlled carriers for local jurisdictions including the enforcement of rules and Statues in the State of Colorado. I have extensive knowledge of report writing for administrative hearings and criminal procedures, including search warrants, affidavits, subpoenas, and complex reports of investigations, summonses, and Commission civil penalties. I have an expert knowledge of transportation-based technology having worked with both Uber and Lyft during enforcement activities, including being one of the first regulators to visit the Uber headquarters in San Francisco.

In my current position, I supervise the daily activities of several regulated professions including Nursing, Chiropractic, Dental, Physical Therapy and Combative Sports. I am responsible for budget forecasting and management, personnel hiring and discipline, and program development. In addition, I developed the current Complaint Intake Team which functions as a consolidated complaint management team for the division. I am also responsible for legislative management which involve monitoring pending legislation that has division impact, fiscal note evaluation, and rule implementation for legislation that may pass. I also develop rules around new programs the legislator implements, as well as rule revision when necessary.

I have, during my tenure, suggested and developed rules and statute changes for the transportation industry in Colorado, including presenting and explaining those changes to hearing officers and judges. I have developed an extensive knowledge of both criminal and a regulatory transportation investigation that includes both registered and unregistered carriers. I also developed the current background investigative process used by the Commission and currently conduct various background investigations on both carriers and drivers, acting as the custodian of record for the Commission. I was the resource expert for media injuries made to the Commission on transportation issues and provide management guidance on the development of responses. In addition, I have forecasted and monitored the budgetary requirements of the unit, to include equipment requirements and legal services. I often am called on to interpret and apply laws, rules, and policies to gain compliance or to approve permits. In addition, I have trained newly assigned investigators and developed the training program that is currently used and often am called on to give group presentations to transportation carriers. I also conduct background investigations on newly hired investigators and make hiring recommendations. In addition, I provide ongoing instruction for all the investigators and ensure that POST certifications are maintained per Colorado standards. I have extensive experience in the development of training manuals, having developed numerous manuals currently used at the Commission, as well as Use of Force and other technical manuals.

In addition, I have trained newly assigned investigators and developed the training program that is currently used and often am called on to give group presentations to transportation carriers. I have extensive experience in investigative and law enforcement techniques, excellent written and oral communication skills, and legislative and regulatory experience. I pride myself in my ability to develop forward thinking investigators through collaboration and mentoring, which has resulted in new innovative ways to deal with fraudulent activity within the Department.

My educational background includes a certificate in Paralegal Studies and a business-based degree in Bachelors in Organizational Development, and a Master's Degree in Legal Studies. I have an expert understanding of all Microsoft Office programs, including Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook. I am a Level 1 Commercial Motor Vehicle Inspector, a Passenger Motor Vehicle Inspector, and a certified Vehicle Identification Number Inspector; having certified through the Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance. I have attended ongoing training in transportation operations and regulation through the Colorado State Patrol and the FMCSA, and the Supervisor Leadership Academy given by the Department of Regulatory Agencies. I am also a fully certified peace officer in the State of Colorado and have knowledge of both firearms and arrest procedures. My leadership abilities include graduation from the United States Army's Leadership Development Course, graduation for and serving as a Field Training Officer, graduation from the State of Colorado's Regulatory Leadership Academy and participation in the State of Colorado Leadership Mentoring program. I have been tasked with the development of many policies and procedures including, to name a few, the current Transportation Network Company rules, the policies and procedures for the background investigative procedures, and the revision of the Towing rules in Colorado.

I am confident that my both my transportation regulatory and leadership experience would add great value to the State of Nevada.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration. I look forward to speaking with you about this opportunity and my qualifications in greater detail.

Sincerely,

Anthony Cummings

Chief of Investigations and Compliance

Colorado Public Utilities Commission

Investigation and Compliance Unit

As a Criminal Investigator III, I plan, design and implement programs that will accomplish the statutory requirements of the legislature and the Commission's policies, rules and regulations; to train, instruct and supervise personnel that will be executing these programs; to supervise the administration of these programs; evaluate the effectiveness of the programs and make the necessary modifications that may be required when the regulatory environment, statutes or the Commission's policies and/or rules change. My duties include developing and implementing systems governing the way business is conducted in both the compliance and investigations unit; communicating the mission, goals, objectives and system requirements to each unit; reviewing and evaluating the work product of Criminal Investigators within each unit to ensure state-wide coverage of inspection and enforcement activities and consistency between and among the units with respect to achievement of established minimum standards of the number of compliance reviews, investigations, case handling, out of town travel, carrier vehicle inspections, based on caseload and budget restrictions; analyzing and prioritizing (triage) informal complaints filed with the Commission for assignment and distribution to the unit supervisors and subsequently their staff; reviewing weekly reports for consistency of investigations and resultant actions; providing guidance and expertise to staff, representatives of industry, and other governmental agencies with respect to interpreting PUC rules and governing statutes. I am the lead supervisor for both the Investigations and Compliance units within the Transportation Section. I have developed new processes to improve the quality of compliance reviews and investigations providing more consumer protections, internal Google systems to track the investigations and compliance units' efficiency, increasing the number of inspections and investigations being conducted. Due to the varying and competing duties within the unit, I developed various processes which allow staff to address more job duties based upon the immediate needs of the public, while continually focused on the consumer protection mission of PUC. I conduct and have conducted thorough review of the units' policy and procedure manual and developed updated and more efficient policy and procures. Continually works with law enforcement agencies (provides continuous training in person and to large groups of officers, participates in specialized law enforcement regional task forces) which expands our enforcement reach. Regularly works with the various industries we regulate educating them on PUC rules and State statutes. Provide guidance to industry and law enforcement on the daily issues and violations we have identified and are addressing. I have participated in all rulemaking proceedings over the past 6-8 years. Meet with industry to discuss issues they are experiencing and to develop more effective rules. I currently provide input and advice to the Deputy Director on the issues and activities of the Investigations and Compliance Units. I provide daily direction and leadership for the Investigations and Compliance Units and assists Consumer Affairs on the cases/complaints and when referrals are necessary. Is still sought out as the expert in fingerprinting for PUC.
